About enoauthentica

Protecting the Integrity of Fine and Rare Wines

I specialize in providing tailored expertise in wine quality control and authentication, helping businesses and collectors safeguard their most valuable assets.

With years of experience and in-depth knowledge of the global wine industry, I bring a proven track record in identifying counterfeit wines and implementing effective solutions to combat fraud.

Using tools such as microscopy, ultraviolet light, and modern technologies like microchips and custom-designed labels, I ensure the authenticity and integrity of fine and rare wines. My approach is built on precision, reliability, and a commitment to maintaining the highest standards in the wine trade.

Whether you're a wine collector, an auction house, or a wine investment firm, my services are designed to protect your investments and provide you with deeper insights into the world of wine authentication.

Mission and Vision

At enoauthentica, my mission is to safeguard the integrity of the fine wine industry through precise authentication, quality control, and education. I empower collectors and investors by providing not only reliable services but also training and insights to deepen their understanding of wine authenticity and preservation. Together, we create a more informed and secure wine community.

My vision is to set the global standard for authenticity, transparency, and knowledge in the wine industry. I aim to create a world where every fine wine is verified, valued, and its story preserved, while fostering continuous learning and collaboration among collectors and investors.

WINE AUTHENTICATION & QUALITY INSPECTION

Ensuring the quality and authenticity of your wine inventory is more than a matter of reassurance - it's an investment in value and credibility.

Through professional quality inspections, your business can avoid costly mistakes such as counterfeits or improper storage conditions that compromise the wine's worth. These inspections also provide thorough documentation, valuable for insurance purposes or as proof of authenticity when selling.

By prioritizing wine authentication and quality assurance, you not only protect your assets but also maximize their value and maintain the integrity of your offerings.

SECURING YOUR INVENTORY

Wine Authentication Reports

Protect your wine inventory from counterfeits and ensure its value for present and future sales. Each wine is thoroughly inspected, assigned a unique reference number, and documented in a detailed report, securely stored for your peace of mind.

Quality Inspection Reports

Prepare your wine collection for sale, purchase, or storage with professional inspection and documentation. Each wine is meticulously categorized, providing detailed records for personal use, customers, or insurance purposes.

Client-Consultant Confidentiality

Your relationships with suppliers and clients are invaluable. I offer tailored confidentiality agreements to protect your interests and ensure trust in our collaboration. Your wines deserve the best foundation, and I'm here to provide it.

DETECT, ASSESS, PROTECT.

Develop the expertise to safeguard fine wine collections and portfolios with my Wine Authentication Training. Designed for professionals in the wine industry, this comprehensive program provides the knowledge and practical tools needed to identify authenticity, detect fraud, and ensure quality assurance at the highest level.

Introduction Class

This essential starting point lays the groundwork for understanding wine authentication. We cover the history of counterfeit wine, key case studies, and the evolution of anti-fraud measures. Learn how to approach authentication, what tools and techniques to use, and how to analyze security features.

Note: Completion of this class is required to access the Advanced and Focus classes.

Advanced Class

Take your expertise to the next level with a deeper exploration of security features used by specific wineries, production patterns in labels and bottles, and technological advancements in anti-fraud measures. This class includes hands-on training in ink and paper analysis, as well as advanced case studies that bring real-world scenarios into focus.

Focus Class

Customized to meet the needs of businesses and professionals, this class provides in-depth knowledge on specific wine regions, producers, or markets. Whether you're focused on a particular winery, country, or area of interest, we design a bespoke program to match your requirements. We also offer package solutions for teams looking to expand their expertise collectively.
